

$2000 SCHOLARSHIP
$1000 SCHOLARSHIP

American Association of University Women-Anacortes Branch

The Anacortes Branch of the American Association of University Women is offering $2000 and $1000 scholarships to women who are in an undergraduate degree program, a vocational certification program, or planning to take courses beyond the undergraduate level in preparation for an advanced degree. The woman must either be an Anacortes High School graduate OR have resided on Fidalgo Island or Guemes Island for the last three years. Previous applicants and recipients of AAUW scholarships may apply; however, it is not available to high school seniors or college freshmen.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the accredited college, university, or training institution where the student is registered. The funds may be used by the student at any time during the year for books, tuition, and/or supplies.

Applications must be submitted online at the email address listed on the application document. Applications must include unofficial electronic transcripts from accredited colleges, universities, or training institutions attended, and an unofficial transcript from Anacortes High School if the woman is a graduate. In addition, applicants must submit two current letters of academic or professional reference (employer or college/training institution instructor). Directions to do so can be found on the application document.

The AAUW Scholarship Committee will consider the following selection criteria: commitment to education and career goals, experiences related to achieving goals, GPA and academic history, strength of references, financial need and personal contributions to fund education, community service and other life experiences.

Finalists will be contacted for an interview on May 9, 2020 at the Anacortes Public Library Meeting Room, 1220 10th Street or by Skype or FaceTime.

Applications can be obtained from:
